I meet with Kevin in August 2018 and my roof wasn't finished until March 2019, it took them way too long to replace the roof on my home. Also Kevin took pictures of my driveway just in case when the dumpster was delivered and picked up that the truck might crack my driveway, well sure enough the truck picking up the dumpster cracked my driveway in three different locations the person I spoke with was Carol Hannigan with Oak Crest her reply was "she was struggling to get a quote from 4 different company's with no response. You do know that we did not cause all the damage shown in the photos that you sent to me, I can offer you $500 credit toward the work" My driveway did not look like that before your company started the work and after 7 months to finish my roof I was ready to be done with this.

I would be more satisfied if they come back to see the gutter guards they messed up and get that resolved. It's only in the back of the house.

Kaylee St Johns stayed involved with me until the roof replacement was complete, and explained every detail of what I was to expect along each step of the process. I was very impressed and satisfied with her involvement. I suggested a neighbor consider Oak Crest Roofing and they also had their roof replaced by Oak Crest thanks to Kaylee St Johns.

The workers that came here I don't think were experienced. They broke our fans in the over-hood on the stove. They didn't tell us and tried to jerry-rig fix it. They bought a pipe too small for the roof and used duct tape. They didn't tell us that. They bent the aluminum siding flashing and didn't correct the mould piece of siding near the roof. All of these things had to get fix. Elma didn't get anyone here to fix those and we had to hire another contractor ourselves to fix those. They still owe us $97 in receipts. We still haven't received our money back.

Working with Jake and DHI has been a great experience when dealing with the results of a storm. They walked us through everything and helped deal with the difficult and often contrary insurance adjustors.

I had heard many horror stories about people and their dealing with roofing companies. Through out the whole process I worried that I too my become a casualty of a scam. To my great astonishment that was not the case. I only had to pay my deductible and nothing more. I would recommend this company to everyone.
